

Public Comment Period Coverage

- 4 Press Mentions
- Several Social Media Posts
- 6 Legal Notice Placements

TOP STORY:

The screenshot shows a news article on the abc8 NEWS WRIC.COM website. The article is titled "Central Virginia Transportation Authority accepts public comments on proposed projects" and is categorized as "LOCAL NEWS". The author is Katelyn Harlow, and it was posted on Feb 8, 2024. The article text states that the CVTA has announced it is accepting public comment on proposed infrastructure projects throughout the region, including bike, pedestrian, bridge, and highway infrastructure in Richmond, Chesterfield, Henrico, Hanover, Goochland, Powhatan, and New Kent counties. The total funding cost is estimated at $151.5 million. Residents have until 3 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 22, to provide feedback. A trending story is also visible: "Do you live in the area getting snow this weekend?".

abc8 NEWS
WRIC.COM

TRENDING STORIES >
1 Do you live in the area getting snow this weekend?

PRESS MENTIONS:

CVTA seeking public input about proposed transportation projects in Richmond region

Feb 11, 2024

Explore an interactive map of Central VA transportation projects

Feb 9, 2024

Central Va. Transportation Authority Accepting Public Comments on Proposed Projects

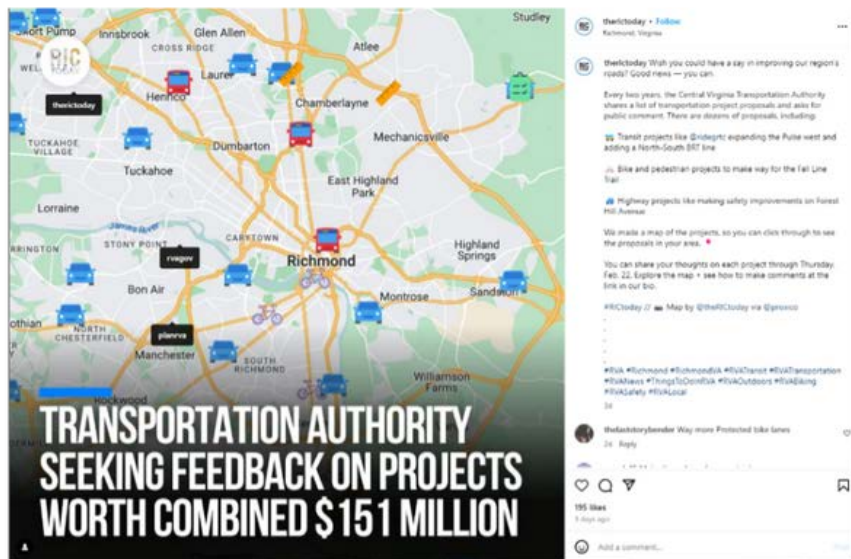

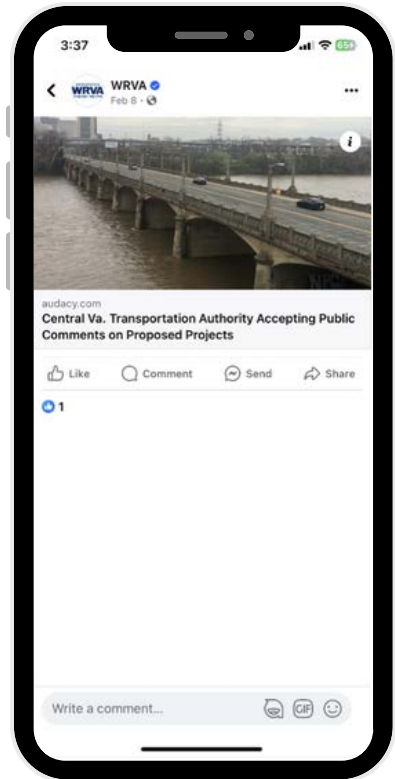

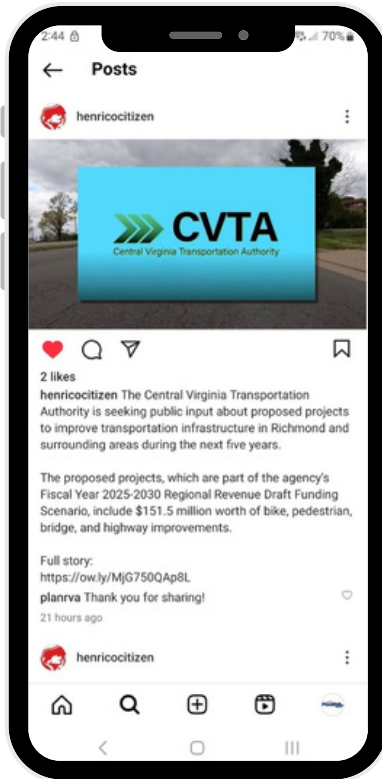

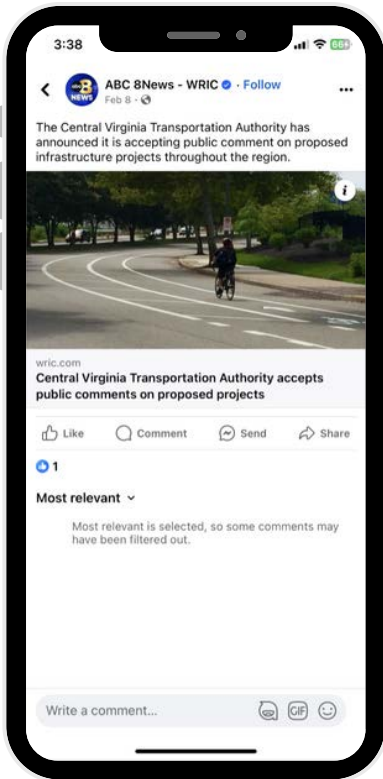

Feb 8, 2024

Central Virginia Transportation Authority accepts public comments on proposed projects

Feb 8, 2024

SOCIAL MEDIA COVERAGE:

SPORTS BACKERS EMAIL BLAST:

Holly,

Excitement is building for the Fall Line, and now is your chance to help secure funding to continue to build this transformational regional trail.

The Central Virginia Transportation Authority (CVTA) is considering at least $34 million in funding for critical segments of the Fall Line in its biennial budget. With VDOT building segments at the northern and southern ends, funding gaps in the middle of the corridor is essential for regional connectivity.

As a constituent of the region represented by the CVTA, click through to send a note to support this funding! The deadline is February 22, so act fast!

Brantley Tyndall
Director of Bike Walk RVA

Send a pre-written message to the CVTA

In case you missed it, the Richmond Times-Dispatch has covered the Fall Line three times this year, including our release of the Fall Line Vision Plan last week, partnering with PlanRVA to produce a live and recorded webinar.

January 1: Richmond Times Dispatch: The Fall Line Trail takes first steps to a 43-mile, \$300 million reality

January 9: Richmond Times-Dispatch: Henrico planning 2 more entrance points to Fall Line Trail

Chet,

Tomorrow is the last chance to send a note to support Fall Line funding at the CVTA. We're talking about a potential swing of millions of dollars for this transformational trail.

Click through to let your regional leaders know how important bike/ped infrastructure is in Central Virginia!

Chet,

Excitement is building for the Fall Line, and now is your chance to help secure funding to continue to build this transformational regional trail.

The Central Virginia Transportation Authority (CVTA) is considering at least $34 million in funding for critical segments of the Fall Line in its biennial budget. With VDOT building segments at the northern and southern ends, funding gaps in the middle of the corridor is essential for regional connectivity.

*As a constituent of the region represented by the CVTA, click through to send a note to support this funding! The deadline is February 22, so act fast!

*Brantley Tyndall
Director of Bike Walk RVA*

LEGAL NOTICE:

The Central Virginia Transportation Authority (CVTA) seeks public comment on its FY 2025-2030 Regional Revenue Draft Funding Scenario

Regional leaders will make funding decisions worth an estimated $151.5 million to improve local bike, pedestrian, bridge, and highway infrastructure over the next four years.

A 15-day public comment period is open from February 8, 2024-February 22, 2024.

Comments may be submitted at information@cvtava.org or through the website. Comments sent before 3 p.m. on February 22, 2024, will be distributed to the members of the Authority.

Anyone wishing to submit comments at the public meeting/hearing may do so by attending:

In person: February 23, 2024, at 9am, at PlanRVA: 424 Hull St Suite 300, Richmond, VA 23224 OR

Virtual: Register for the Zoom Video Webinar and submit your comment via the Q&A.

The draft project list is available for public review and comments online: <https://planrva.org/transportation/cvta-comments/>

Feb 8, 2024

Feb 8, 13, 19, 2024

Feb 7, 2024

Feb 8, 2024

Feb 7, 2024

Feb 8-22, 2024